Chair’s Annual Report

Since the last conference, I have greatly enjoyed the opportunity to participate in the workings of this organization, which puts on a terrific conference each year, supports education and professional development, advocates for medical libraries and librarians, and manages to have a great time doing it all.

Why do we have a regional organization of medical libraries? After all in our six states we have different politics and collaborations, have our own state organizations, and we are separated by surprisingly long distances. But there is something about New England that we share. Maybe it’s the beautiful autumn we all enjoy, or the proximity to the North Atlantic that most of us share. More likely it’s the pre-dominance of excellent medical, nursing and health sciences schools in the region, the excellence of the teaching and community hospitals in our region, and the excellence and commitment of medical librarians from all parts of the region who have a desire to know one another, and to learn from each other and from the greater national medical library community.

I’d like to highlight some of our priorities and activities of the past year:

• Growing our understanding of how we work as an organization. The Board reviewed and revised the NAHSL structure, calendar and procedure manual. A clear NAHSL organizational chart, generic calendar and updated procedure manual are now on the NAHSL website. The length of committee chair appointments has been resolved. It had varied in the manual between one and three years. Now the standard appointment for committee chairs and members is 2 years with the option for a 2 year reappointment. NAHSL members can be assured that if they agree to serve this organization, they can do so energetically knowing that their appointment is not an open-ended commitment.

• Developing leadership in our organization by including more of the members on committees and actively seeking nominations for officers and Committee chairs. This year we will have 2 excellent candidates for each of the offices of treasurer and secretary. I think this speaks well for both the vitality of NAHSL and quality of our members.

• Using Web 2.0 technology (Adobe Connect) to hold 2 special meetings to develop goals and priorities to work on now and in the coming year. This is a first for the NAHSL Board and we found it generally effective, and it saved time and travel costs for members and the Association. We have also made meeting and learning at a distance the priority goals for next year.

• Planning for the 50th Anniversary Celebration culminating at this conference by the 50th Anniversary Committee led by Len Levin. Len with Carol Foxman, NAHSL Archivist, and Mary Ellen Bowman, Chair of the NAHSL Marketing Committee, developed the look into our past with interesting and rewarding contest questions based on the NAHSL electronic archive. To see the historical materials go to http://www.nahsl.org/enterhistory.htm.
• Responding to member concerns. At last year’s annual meeting the issue was raised that the By-Laws should extend the requirement of membership in MLA for NAHSL Executive Board members to the liaisons to NAHSL from the state health science library organizations. At this meeting we will vote on an amendment which will do just that.

• At the same meeting, the issue was raised about the complexity of organizing the conference each year and the possibility of simplifying this by holding the conference in the same location each year. In response and also to address other issues such as growing expenses, the Board has formed a Task Force to be chaired by past-chair Janene Batten. The task force will study possible alternative conference planning strategies and make recommendations.

• Marketing Committee conducting an outreach campaign to develop awareness of NAHSL by health science or science librarians in academic public and community college libraries. A new NAHSL brochure was developed and distributed.

• Other activities and accomplishments are highlighted in the reports of the Board members that are distributed in your packet.

• Planning for our future. As mentioned the Board conducting planning exercises in August. We did ask for input from the membership and received some comments. The following areas were ranked as high priority items for the association:

1. Investigate acquiring software for web conferencing  (sub goal: Increase number of NAHSL meetings conducted online)

2. Do more to support hospital libraries and librarians

3. Use web 2.0 technology such as a blog to communicate news

4. Consider new models for annual conference

This is not to diminish our continuing goals for supporting professional education, and holding the annual conference but rather it identifies ways to move forward with the times, reflecting the need to be effective, economical, and green at the same time. As past chair I’ll be thrilled to work as past–chair with incoming chapter chair Andy Dzaugis to help move these goals forward.

I would also like to highlight NAHSL’s continuing collaboration with the National Network of Libraries of Medicine New England Region which so graciously hosts NAHSL Board meetings at its offices, and hosts the NAHSL website, and hosted the web-based meeting had so far.. So a special thanks to Javier Crespo, Penny Goldman, Mark Goldstein, and Martha Pearson on the NNLM office staff.

I would also like to give special thanks to those who will be going off the Board, most of whom have served at least two terms:

Mark Goldstein – Treasurer and Chair of Finance Committee
Nancy Harger - Secretary
Carole Foxman – Archives Chair
Mark Gentry – Bylaws and Procedures Chair
Ed Donnald – Electronic Communications Chair

Jeanene Batten – Past Chair
Cindy Hutchison – Chapter Council Alternate

Our state representatives include Tamera Race (Maine), Claire LaForce (NH-VT), Megan McNichol (Mass), John Gallagher and Mary Ann Slocomb (Rhode Island). Our new Secretary, Treasurer, Conference Chair Elect, and nominee to the MLA Nominating Committee and MLA Chapter Council alternate will be elected here at the conference.
I also want to thank those who participated on committees this year with participation on Archives, Finance, Marketing, Government Relations, Bylaws, Professional Development, and Education, all of which had at-large members who are not members of the Board.

Thank you for the privilege of serving as your MLA New England Chapter Chair.

Chapter Roundtables Committee
283 registrants for 29 topics and 41 tables

MLA Task Force on Social Networking
Task Force developed and taught the online MLA course on Web 2.0 technology. Seven hundred members registered, approximately 350 completed the course. Some hospital librarians had difficulty accessing the course due to institutional firewalls, others found it too much work.

Other MLA Information

Bylaws Changes (to be voted on by MLA membership)

2. Reorganization of Section Council. Council terms to change from 3 to 2 years. Past Chairs of the sections will be the representatives; current chairs to serve as alternates.

Strategic Planning
Chapter Council Chair, Paula Raimondo, has encouraged Chapters to coordinate the work of the Chapters with the strategic goals of MLA, by aligning our goals and objectives with those of Chapter Council, whenever possible. To that end, the NASHL Executive Board has adopted a revised version of Chapter Council’s planning grid.

Student/MLA Relations
Mary Ryan (MLA President) has requested that as part of Chapter annual meetings, chapters schedule time for student members to meet with the MLA president, MLA staff member or MLA board member attending the meeting. Connie Schardt, MLA President-Elect will be at the Lowell meeting, and time has been set aside for this initiative.

Chapter Council Alternate
Cindy Hutchison resigned her position as CC Alternate, effective May 2008. Cindy also served as the CC Secretary. An election will be held at NAHSL 2008 to choose a new Alternate.

Respectfully submitted,
Janet Cowen, MSLS, AHIP
Chapter Council Representative
ARCHIVES

NAHSL archival materials (print, photos, and memorabilia) continue to be collected, organized, and stored according to the Archives Guidelines. The NAHSL E-Archives were updated throughout the year. The History of NAHSL was updated for the 50th Anniversary. The Timeline and Photographs were revised and enlarged. A Document section was added and was the basis of the NAHSL 50th Anniversary History “Question-of-the-Month” Contest. The 1958 – 2004 Archives are stored in the Harvard University Depository in Southborough, MA; the years 2005-2007 are currently at Treadwell Library, Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston, MA. The recent years will be moved to the Integrated Sciences and Engineering Library at the University of Massachusetts, Amherst, MA in October 2008.

Respectfully submitted,

Carole Foxman,
Archives Chair
The deadline to complete the 2007 Benchmarking Survey was extended to January 31, 2008, allowing approximately 6 – 10 additional libraries in New England to complete the survey. This resulted in NAHSL having the most completed surveys with a total of 41 libraries. The following chart lists the final totals from all the chapters and Canada.

POLICY & PROCEDURE MANUAL UPDATES
We continued the process of updating the NAHSL Policy and Procedure Manual from the previous year. The Bylaws chair and Bylaws committee member Deborah Clark created a matrix which allowed us to compare features including length of appointment, major responsibilities and subcommittee structure. Along with the NAHSL Chair and Secretary, we used the matrix to look for inconsistencies in our formal structure and general practice. Addressing obvious inconsistencies and lack of specificity with length of committee chair appointments, the board resolved that wherever possible, committee chairs should be appointed for a two-year term with the option of a single two-year reappointment. We felt that regularizing the terms of office would promote the appropriate amount of continuity within the organization while helping to bring NAHSL members who had not previously served onto the Executive Board. Consistency also helps the NAHSL chair and chair-elect to better plan for committee chair appointments.

PROPOSED BYLAWS CHANGES
The Board passed three Bylaws changes which will be presented to the NAHSL membership for a vote at the business meeting. We are proposing the addition of one new article and modification of two existing sections:

ARTICLE VIII. Dissolution
We are adding an article that pertains to the dissolution of NAHSL. This type of clause is standard in organizational bylaws. The text of this proposed new article was taken almost entirely from the Medical Library Association's "Models Bylaws for Chapters". Motion was passed by the Executive Board at its June 19, 2008 meeting.

Article IV Meetings, Section 2. Quorum
The MLA Bylaws Chair, in reviewing our other proposed changes, noted that our clause defining what constitutes a "quorum" neither conforms with the Model Bylaws nor Roberts Rules or Order (which our Bylaws say we follow). They "strongly suggested" that we modify this clause to conform with the guidelines. Motion was passed by the Executive Board at its September 12, 2008 meeting.

Article III, Section 2, Rights and Privileges
A Bylaws change passed by the membership at last years’ NAHSL business meeting changed the status of State Representatives so that they now have full voting rights on the Board. It was pointed out by several NAHSL members at the time of the vote that the language of the another article (the one in question here) did not require State Representatives to be members of MLA, a requirement for every other elected or appointed member of the Executive Board. Motion was passed by the Executive Board at its September 12, 2008 meeting.

The membership was informed of the proposed changes on the NAHSL Website and through the NAHSL listserv prior to this meeting. The membership will have an opportunity to vote on these Bylaws changes during the annual business meeting. Copies of the changes are included in the conference packet.

Electronic Communications

Having been recently introduced to Dr. Who, the mysterious time traveler, I’ve been enjoying the BBC show on DVD and the ability they provide to compress the previous three seasons into a series of eye blurring weekends. Watching the adventures about time, playing out in accelerated time has been an interesting experience.

The concept of time has been one that made its mark on the Electronic Communications Committee this past year. Immediately following the annual meeting, I looked forward by looking back. In preparation for this year’s milestone in our history, I traveled to the NAHSL Archives, housed at the Harvard Depository, along with other members of the 50th Anniversary Celebration Committee. We selected documents that would paint a picture and tell the story of the formative years in our organization. Many reports, letters, and other historical items were scanned and uploaded to the website. A new visual interface was designed so that visitors could look at this new content along with other images and pages. These documents were then used as source material for the Question of the Month contest that was held this past year. I hope that those who looked at the documents enjoyed the peek into the past and for those that have not yet made the trip, I would recommend it for rainy afternoon.

Time also began to run out on my second and final two-year term as Chair of the Electronic Communications Committee. Sally Gore, a Librarian in the Education and Research Services Department of the Lamar Soutter Library, UMass Medical School joined the committee and enthusiastically took over the responsibilities for posting content to our website. Sally brings a wealth of technical and online experience to our organization and I am grateful for her contributions. Sally will now become the Chair of the Electronic Communications Committee, bringing her own vision and style to NAHSL. If you would like to join the committee, contact Sally. There are always opportunities looking to be realized.

The Committee has also been spending some time looking to our future. Models of communication have transcended the static website. Interactive technologies such as wikis, blogs, RSS and the social aspects they bring are being evaluated for how they may play a role in NAHSL communications. Other MLA Chapters are being contacted about their own implementations of new technology and how they might bring improvement to our communications. Recommendations for new initiatives will be reported to the Executive Board in the coming year.

The last 48 months have marched by in a blur, but I’ve enjoyed the opportunities provided and the time spent with the website, listserv and you. The trip has been "Fantastic!"

FINANCE COMMITTEE
MEETING MINUTES FOR 2/29/08

Attendees:

Fran Becker (Present)
Marianne Burke (Present)
Andy Dzaugis (Present)
Mark Goldstein (Treasurer-Present)
Linda Ann Kaczmarczyk (Present)
Mary Ann Slocomb (Present)
Jo-Anne Aspri (Excused)

The meeting took place on the UMASS Shrewsbury campus on Friday, February 29, 2008. It began at 10:05 am and adjourned at 2:20 pm. During the meeting, the Committee: reviewed developments; analyzed a series of End of Year (EOY) and Year to Date (YTD) financial reports; discussed several important topics; and produced a list of action items.

Respectfully submitted,

Mark Goldstein, Treasurer

I. REVIEWED RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

• Filed for 2008: incorporation renewal with Connecticut Secretary of State.
• For FY2008: MLA reinstated option to purchase Professional Liability insurance.
• For FY2007: filed 1099’s with honoraria recipients and the IRS.

II. ANALYZED FINANCIAL REPORTS

• EOY 2007 Account Balances
• EOY 2007 Income / Expense by Category
• YTD Account Balances
• YTD Income / Expense by Category
• YTD Budget-to-Actuals
III. MOTIONS

#1: Following adjustments to the FY2008 budget, the Finance Committee recommends that the Executive Board limit annual deficit spending to $15,000 as part of their budget plan.

#2: As a guideline, the Finance Committee recommends that the Treasury balance not go below $50,000, for the following reasons:
   a.) Travel expense has increased, due to an upward adjustment in the Federal mileage reimbursement rate and rises in fuel costs;
   b.) Bank interest rates continue to adjust lower amidst a worsening US economy;
   c.) Continued deficit spending lowers bank balances and compounds lower income;
   d.) Sizeable charitable donations have been made by NAHSL over the last several years;
   e.) Current membership remains stable; however, in the absence of a sizeable increase in either the membership or membership dues, future reductions in subsidies for continuing education or scholarships should be anticipated.
   f.) Current Executive Board meetings are not run economically.
   g.) A combination of reduced expense and increased income will be required in the future.

IV. OTHER TOPICS OF DISCUSSION

Conference Planning Software:
- Discussed the pros & cons of introducing event software to handle annual meetings. Reviewed Committee’s Task Force report from previous year. Consensus that Acteva works well, but is expensive. Also, the learning curve can be steep, and there are nasty consequences if attendees are not registered properly. Several suggestions were offered:
  - Suggestion – NAHSL could acquire their own license to use the software, but who from the pool of NAHSL volunteers would be trained?
  - Suggestion – NAHSL could develop own resources, using MS-Access or Excel.
  - Suggestion – pursue contacting MLA, to see if individual chapters could “borrow” MLA’s conference planning software for annual meetings.
  - Suggestion – contact Donna Wyckstrand to look into the feasibility of having NAHSL do its own conference planning. Also, individual state groups may want to follow a similar route should the expense be reasonable – or – the state group may want to the expense into the overall cost for the conference.
Government Relations Committee

The GRC for 2007-2009 has the following membership:

Margo Coletti, AMLS, AHIP (Chair)
Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center
Boston, MA

Boyle, Patricia
Melrose-Wakefield Hospital
Melrose, MA

Sheila Hayes, M.S., A.H.I.P.
Portsmouth Regional Hospital
Portsmouth, NH

Elizabeth Killoran
Milford Regional Medical Center
Milford, MA

O’Malley, Donna
University Of Vermont
Burlington, VT

The group met in person on March 21st, 2008 in Portsmouth, NH, to get to know each other, brainstorm on issues and ideas we could pursue, and set an agenda. All future meetings this year will be held by phone or web.

The group has identified a number of functions, programs, officials, etc. which we could pursue in the next few years:

- NIH and NLM funding
- NIH open access mandate
- Copyright issues
- Disaster recovery and the government’s role
- FDA oversight and evidence-based research
- Positions we could take as an organization on issues such as the above
- Helping NAHSL members to establish a dialog with their state/national elected officials
- Identifying positions of national candidates on health/library issues

For the rest of 2008, our goal is to create a section on the NAHSL website, devoted to government relations. On this site, we want to post:

- Contact info on the committee members
- Contact info for national (later, state) government offices such as NIH, FDA, US Congress, White House, etc.
- Summaries of current relevant legislation and legislative alerts
- Sample letters for communicating with lawmakers and other government officials
- Candidate’s positions on issues that are relevant to medical libraries:
  - Health care
  - Open access
  - Digital rights

The committee welcomes feedback from the Executive Board and the NAHSL membership.
MARKETING COMMITTEE

The marketing committee worked this past year to enlist new members for NAHSL. It was decided to send letters and brochures to all academic libraries with health sciences programs and the larger public libraries throughout New England. The letter we sent is attached along with the updated brochure. The committee also posted the invitation to join NAHSL on two listserv’s, the Connecticut libraries listserv and the New England libraries listserv.

The committee had one meeting at the beginning of the year and then conducted most of the business through email and by phone. The marketing committee members are:
Mary Ellen Bowen, Chair
Marilyn Pitman
Anne Marie Kaminsky
Lucretia McClure

As the chair of the Marketing Committee, Mary Ellen attended the Executive Board meetings and worked on the goals and objectives for this year and the coming year.

NAHSL membership increased in 2008! We continue to encourage New England medical librarians and library school students to join the organization.

In 2005 NAHSL introduced a student membership category, which is currently free to students of library, information, and medical informatics programs. There are currently six NAHSL student members.

NAHSL continued to send more frequent email reminders between January and March to people who had not yet renewed their membership. (Members need to renew by March 31st to qualify for scholarships and the reduced member rates at the NAHSL conference.) The chapter also distributed our new membership brochure at the MLA Chapter Council booth to promote NAHSL membership during the MLA conference.

I am pleased to report that there are 21 new NAHSL members so far this year. The new members include a combination of library school students, vendors, and people who are either new to the area or new to medical librarianship. The chapter’s scholarship opportunities—for attending the MLA and NAHSL conferences—could have enticed some of these new members. Also, the NAHSL Conference Registration Chair did a great job of verifying membership status of attendees.

1. Awards for NAHSL 2008

The PD Committee received 14 applications coming from five states, and 9 of them were granted awards for a total of $1800 out of $4500 that was budgeted for NAHSL 2008. Three people did not receive the awards mainly for not meeting the deadline; one was removed after receiving the award since her registration was eventually covered by her institution.

2. Awards for MLA 2008

All nine applicants were granted awards for a total of $3755 out of $4500 that was budgeted for MLA 2008 (Total approved budget for 2008 is $9,000). No applicants asked for an amount larger than the maximum of $450 that was allowed under current criteria.

For both NAHSL and MLA, we spent $6,135 out of $9,000 and returned the rest to NAHSL. Information on past award winners is available on http://www.nahsl.org/pdwinners.htm.

The PD committee is in the process of reviewing the current award criteria (http://www.nahsl.org/profdevfund.htm) and contemplating possible changes where necessary.

Your comments, suggestions and recommendations will be highly appreciated.
